Bill of Rights

Client Bill of Rights
Revised October 4th, 2019

As a client of Bilingual Therapy NJ, LLC, you have the following rights in addition to your rights as required by law and code of ethics.

YOU HAVE A RIGHT TO:

1. Privacy and dignity.
2. Confidentiality concerning all information relative to yourself and your treatment except when state law requires disclosure. This means that no information about your treatment may be released to anyone without your informed and written consent.
3. Participate fully in the development of your services plan.
4. Information concerning your condition and progress.
5. Access to information in your record. There are some limitations to this right, counselors limit the access of clients to their records, or portions of their records, only when there is compelling evidence that such access would cause harm to the client. (ACA Code of Ethics B.6.e)
6. Prompt referral for medical treatment or any physical ailment.
7. Communicate with your attorney, physician and the courts.

If you believe your rights have been violated, you may present a complaint either orally or in writing to: Bilingual Therapy NJ, LLC, 862-222-3679 email: bilingualtherapynj@gmail.com
You can contact the Office of Civil Rights, 25 Federal Plaza, Room 3312, New York, N.Y. 10278 Attn: District Manager.

Complaints will be reviewed by the appropriate persons and necessary and appropriate action will be taken to resolve the conflict problem.
